Guide to the UAA. Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies conference records
1979-1991

Collection number: UAA-0037.

Creating office: University of Alaska Anchorage. Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies.

Series title: UAA. Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies conference records.

Dates: 1979-1991.

Volume of series: 5.3 cubic feet.

Language of materials: Collection materials in English.

Series summary: Conference documents and session recordings of conferences dealing with substance abuse, violence, and other social issues.

Administrative history:

The Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies (CAAS) was established by the Board of Regents in 1972 to address the problem of substance abuse in Alaska. CAAS is housed within the Institute for Circumpolar Health Studies.

Agency functions:

CAAS conducts research that addresses substance abuse in Alaska. Research activities center on the stimulation and coordination of interdisciplinary and collaborative studies and the promotion of scientific interchanges of alcohol-and drug-related information.

Series description:

The collection consists of records of conferences held in Anchorage and presented by the University of Alaska Anchorage, Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies. Textual records consist of conference brochures, programs, proceedings, tape lists, and other materials. These include records from the following conferences: the Annual School on Addiction Studies (1979, 1981-1984, 1986-1991), the Annual Children of Alcoholics Conference (1984, 1985, 1987-1989), the Institute on Family Violence (1984-1986), the Annual Mental Health Conference (1987-1991), and the Annual Interpersonal Violence Symposium (1989-1991). The audio recordings consist of 1150 audiocassettes of conference proceedings. The audiocassettes are from the following conferences: the Annual School on Addiction Studies (1984-1991), the Annual Institute on Family Violence (1984-1985), the Annual Mental Health Conference (1987-1991), and the Annual Interpersonal Violence Symposium (1990-1991). The conferences of 1989 to 1991 were referred to as the Tri-discipline Conferences, on the subjects of addiction studies, mental health, and interpersonal violence.

Arrangement: The collection is arranged chronologically by conference date. The tapes are housed separately from the documents; the box locations are noted in the container list below.

Digitized copies: Digital copies of collection material not available online. For information about obtaining digital copies, please contact Archives and Special Collections.

Use restrictions: The University holds copyright only to those materials created by CAAS.

Preferred citation: UAA. Center for Alcohol and Addiction Studies conference records, Archives and Special Collections, Consortium Library, University of Alaska Anchorage.
