Agency history and functions

The primary function of the UAA Office of Campus Diversity & Compliance is to promote, support, measure, and celebrate diversity. This mission also includes support for the Diversity Action Council and other programming events and activities that promote diversity on campus. In addition, the office is responsible for managing and coordinating University policies, procedures, and programs regarding equal opportunity and affirmative action. The office handles complaints on discrimination and harassment based on race, color, gender, religion, national origin, citizenship, age, marital status, disability or status as a Vietnam-era or disabled veteran. The Office of Campus Diversity & Compliance also provides sexual harassment and Equal Employment Opportunity training, supervisor and employee support, conflict resolution, and discussion groups for departments around cultural inclusion and awareness.

Retention

As an official publication of the University of Alaska Anchorage, this series will be retained permanently. The Archives will retain a single copy of this publication for each issue.

Series description

This series contains twelve posters from events sponsored by the UAA Office of Campus Diversity & Compliance in 2008-2010, including events for Civil Rights Month and Women's History Month.
