Arrangement

These publications are arranged chronologically by date.

Series description

The FY budget requests were published on an annual basis. Generally the budget requests are well in advance of the FY date on the cover of the volume (i.e. the FY 1991 budget request was published in 1989.) The volumes include information on the current status of programs, and specific fiscal requests for both the operating and capital budgets. The documents often include information regarding prioritization of requests.

Retention

As an official publication of the University of Alaska Anchorage, this series will be retained permanently. The Archives will retain a single copy of this publication for each issue.
