Processing information

This series was arranged and described by Arlene Schmuland in 2009.

Arrangement

These publications are arranged chronologically by publication date.

Series description

The general publications series consists of a variety of publications issued by the Office of Academic Affairs. Many of these are one-time-only publications. They include publications on the topics of faculty research, development, and sponsored program activities, academic and administrative calendars, and student profiles.

Retention

As official publications of the University of Alaska Anchorage, this series will be retained permanently. The Archives will retain a single copy of each publication.
